

 energy innovation CO-OPERATIVE Invites you on May 5th to community conversations in the pub

love
where you live

artwork by www.jeni jobe design.com

community Free event at Archies Couch Guest artists and presenters are;

Little Oberon – Nicky De Gruchy and Peter Baird screening their short film accompanied by their live music designed to inspire a reconnection with nature

School Climate Strikers from Wonthaggi Secondary and Newhaven College – recounting their recent experiences of rallying with 30,000 other Victorian students in Melbourne CBC, calling for meaningful action on climate change

Lauren Barker – showcasing recent creative events that are engaging people in reducing plastic pollution

Aileen Vening & Kylie McMurray – on the phenomenal success of the Boomerang Bags community movement

Stay on for a tasty pub dinner afterwards and enjoy one of our great local wateringholes

Sunday May 5th, 4 until 6 pm, Archies Couch, 89 Archies Creek Road, Archies Creek

This community event is about ideas, conversations and inspiration. Adults & kids, all welcome!

RSVP on line at www.eico-op.org.au Further details please call Moragh on 0418 969 083, or email info@eico-op.org.au
#ClimateStrike #ClimateElection #Budget2019

